

New Zealand Network Cabinet Fee Standards

Overview

Introduced in 1997 and issued as a Cabinet Office Circular, the Cabinet Fees Framework provides consistent, fiscally responsible, and flexible guidance for setting fees for members of public bodies not covered by the Remuneration Authority or the Crown Company Fees Methodology. Introduced in 1997 and issued as a Cabinet Office Circular, the Cabinet Fees Framework provides consistent, fiscally responsible, and flexible guidance for setting fees for members of public bodies not covered by the Remuneration Authority or the Crown Company Fees Methodology. This circular and the attached Framework replaces Cabinet Office Circular CO (22) 2 and applies from 1 July 2025. The revised Framework covers all statutory bodies, non-statutory bodies and committees in which the Crown has an interest, that are outside the Remuneration Authority's or other fee-. Te Kawa Mataaho Public Service Commission provides advice and guidance to agencies on the interpretation and implementation of the Cabinet Fees Framework (the Framework). For the avoidance of doubt, those terms are also revoked and replaced as part of the initial pricing standard i a he t g cards of the other scheme. The network standard.
